TASTE PROFILE

It is a blend of grapes – not only red ones – that we harvested early to get more acidity. The fermentation occurred spontaneous as in other wines, but as we take less quantity, the temperature is lower. More fruit, better to drink a little bit colder. Strawberries, tropical fruits and herbs are in the nose. Tasting the wine we remember the homemade wines in Bierzo houses in the past.

VINEYARD

20 parcels selected in the areas of Matadeprada, Valdelaiebre, Valdemanteiga and Villegas; selecting loam to sandy loam soils, with east exposure, a gentle slope, and old vines.

STYLE OF VINTAGE

The spring and the beginning of the summer wasn't hot enough, with a big drought during June and July. The plant suffered water stress. At the end of grape maturation, the weather was hardly hot, and the grapes got a marvelous tannic maturation

WINEMAKING & AGING

Production is done in very small tanks of only 1500 liters each. 48 hours of skin maceration before a 12 day, spontaneous fermentation, including manual punching of the cap. The wine aged 15 months in French oak barrels. During the first 6 months, the wine was kept on its fine lees, with frequent stirring. We selected the 25 barrels we liked the best, blended, and then bottled.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Great with white meats, like pork, chicken, or even turkey. Try as well with cheeses or charcuterie.
